

Focus Awards Level 3 Award in Teaching Assistant (Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools) - RQF

Overview

The Level 3 Award in Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools (RQF) is an accredited and Ofqual regulated knowledge-based teaching assistant qualification for those who are, or wish to be, Teaching Assistants, or any other school based role involving directly supporting teaching and learning. Having this qualification for teaching assistants increases your profile and many centres or schools will request that you have this qualification before starting a teaching assistant position with them.

By taking this level 3 TA course you will gain the knowledge needed to work directly with children or young people and create professional relationships, understand their development, and understand how to safeguard their wellbeing.

Duration and Delivery

This online teaching assistant course is designed to be completed at the pace that suits you. It can take as little as 1 week, or up to 2 months, depending on your previous experience and your dedication to the course. The qualification is delivered through our Virtual Learning Environment, Moodle, on a self-study basis with tutor support.

Assessment & Verification

All units within this course are internally analysed by our internal assessors and externally verified by the awarding organisation. The assessment takes the form of written assignments, detailed guidance for which will be provided by the tutor once you're enrolled.
