

Focus Awards Level 3 Certificate in Teaching Assistant (Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools) - RQF

Overview

The Level 3 Certificate in Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools is an accredited and Ofqual regulated qualification for Teaching Assistants, or other school staff who directly support teaching and learning. It increases your profile and many centres or schools will request that you have this qualification before starting a teaching assistant position with them.

By taking this online teaching assistant Level 3 course you will gain the knowledge and understanding needed to work directly with children or young people in supporting the assessment for learning, developing relationships, promoting equality and diversity and understanding how to safeguard the wellbeing of children and young people.

Duration and Delivery

This teaching assistant training course is designed to be completed online at the pace that suits you. It can take as little as three weeks, or up to 6 months, depending on your previous experience and your dedication to the course. The qualification is delivered through our Virtual Learning Environment, Moodle, on a self-study basis with tutor support.

Assessment & Verification

All units within this course are internally analysed by our internal assessors and externally verified by the awarding organisation. The assessment takes the form of written assignments, and through practical elements, detailed guidance for which will be provided by the tutor once you're enrolled.

Eligibility Criteria

Learners should meet the following requirements:

- Be aged 16+
- Have a placement/position within a school environment where you have access to students.

Progression

Successful completion of this teaching assistant qualification enables learners to progress onto teaching qualifications such as the Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training, or the Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training- the course which provides you with the opportunity to apply for QTLS status (which allows one to teach in state schools for GCSE and A-Level students).

To further heighten your career and earning potential, you could progress onto the Level 3 Certificate in Assessing Vocational Achievement (and become a qualified assessor) and/or the Level 4 Certificate in Leading the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practices (and become a qualified IQA).
